

ON THE TRACTOR SEAT

Volume 30, Issue 8

August 2019

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Hi everyone....

Our July meeting was hot, but we still had a good turn-out.

-A lot of discussion, on the coming events in August. The big one is the Antelope Valley Fair, starting on Friday August 16th. Set-up will begin on Wednesday & Thursday. We must be ready for the Friday, evening opening, of the fair. This is an all hands event, and we need everyone, to do their part and help out!

-The AV Fair runs from Friday August 16th through Sunday August 25th. The last day of the Fair we will have chicken dinners brought in, for all those that are present & participated in the event. Thank you, ALL.

-I am personally proud of the club, for getting this event together each and every year, and for your participation, in making this event happen...

-Gate & Parking passes will be given out to those that show and take part in the fair. See Robert Meyer for more details....

-We would like to welcome new member, Bruce Byram to the club. He is an engine guy with a popping Johnny, John Deere.

Kick-Off dinner was held at the Fairgrounds on Friday, July 19th at 5 PM. Notices from the fair went out late, and the attendance was lower than normal. However, the food was good and plenty of it. Lisa McKinney walk away with a giant gift basket, from one of the drawings.....Picture page 5. Club participation was great, with four tables filled, from our club.

Now get your equipment ready for the Fair.....

You're Club President, Bill Forbes.
